In another letter I enclose aho a supplement to the above description of my voyage, and I pray you to give both to Micer Juan Luis, to whom I also have written and said that you will be the reader and interpreter of the said letters. I am anxious to hear from you, especially about the plan we agree to. I arrived here very sick, and about the time in which the Queen, my Lady (whom God has with Him) died, and I could not see her. Up to the present it is impossible for me to tell you what will be the practical result of all my doings. I suppose that Her Highness has properly provided in her will for everything concerning this matter, and the King, my lord, always gives good...
