The Harvard Advocate, Vol. 46 (Classic Reprint)

By Harvard University

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Harvard Advocate, Vol. 46 We must encourage our team with support financial, physical and moral. We must subscribe, practice and encourage with a hearty enthusiasm such as we owe our college. We must seize the first opportunity, and that is football. Let us strain every nerve to win the championship which has been a stranger to us ever since 77. We have a capable captain, and good material. Why should the other elements of success be lacking? They need not, and the problem resolves itself into this, if they are present we win, if they are lacking we lose. Another opportunity now open to us is a judicious use of the suffrage permitted us as members of the different athletic associations in college. It is our duty as members of these associations to attend the business meetings and help to elect the most capable officers irrespective of personal feelings or society applications. We have failed miserably in this duty during these last years. The Athletic Association with its large membership seldom induces more than...

Reviews

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that i am sure that i will gonna read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
