D. 1850: Comprising Acts of Parliament, Books of Discipline Forms of Process, Directory for Public Worship, Extracts From Various Authors, Lord Aberdeen s Bill, C. C The Compiler of this work has been led to undertake its publication, from a conviction that it will be found to contain much information, with reference to the constitution of the Church of Scotland, which many, in this country, are desirous to obtain, and which all ought to possess. Amidst the discussions regarding church polity, which have so long prevailed among us, it is difficult to say whether there has been displayed greater ignorance of the real principles in dispute, or of the constitution regarding which these disputes have been maintained: and more lately, the provisions of recent acts, affecting the settlement of ministers, and the erection of new parishes, have been unknown to the great body of the people, except as seen through their effects. About the...
