Language: English Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Ecce Clerus: Or the Christian Minister in Many Lights This treatise is an attempt to deal with some pressing present-day problems having their incidence within the sphere of religion and holding peculiarly intimate relation to the ministerial calling. Fidelity to its aim in this regard makes it a more or less free and candid criticism of the spirit, status, functions, methods, and achievements of the Christian ministry, viewed in the light of the New Testament and the special requirements of the age. Some of its chapters were read as essays within recent years at meetings of evangelical associations, pastors unions, and other ministerial gatherings held in various cities of the United States where the author has resided, exciting at the time considerable discussion, and eliciting a wide variety of opinion on the questions mooted. Such was the case with Chapters V, VI, VIII, and X, dealing respectively with The Theme of Preaching, The Bugbear of the Modern Evangelical Pulpit, The Ministry and the Masses, The Itinerant Ministry and the Settled Pastorate Compared and Contrasted. The book is a word from the watchtower of a waning century-a century whose significance for science, philosophy, invention, for historical and critical research, for commercial expansion and industrial development, for moral, social, and penal reform, for educational, religious, and political progress, is probably greater than that of any two preceding centuries which have contributed any kind of a record to the annals of the world.
