In this exclusive Annie s class DVD, card makers and paper crafters will explore the traditional art of tea-bag folding using small squares and circles of paper which are then assembled into medallion or rosette shapes;learn the joys of iris folding, which originated as a technique in Holland, in which colorful strips of paper, ribbon, or even fabric are layered in a spiral design that resembles the iris or an eye of camera; and discover how to make a useful pocket fold, a dimensional accordion fold rosette, an exquisite dahlia flower fold, and an origami butterfly fold. This class covers techniques that are perfectly suited for card making, scrapbooking, packaging, and even home decor. Card projects includes even tea-bag fold cards, four iris-fold cards, and five cards made with fun folds including a pocket fold, a dahlia fold, an origami butterfly, and a rosette.
