Excerpt: . . . 11 without scrutiny More good Ohio jobs are likely to be lost, communities washed out, and consumers across our country, as well as world customers, subjected to higher prices because of reduced competition. This deal is being constructed as an attempt to escape regulatory oversight, to expedite the consolidation of an already heavily consolidated industry. Let me just place on the record: This is a package delivery industry that has been making money. In 2007, overall, 32.8 billion - that is with a billion dollars was taken in in annual revenues. Now, FedEx got about 42.7 percent of that, 14.02 billion. 14.02 billion is about as much as we spend in an annual year to fund NASA. The United Parcel Service earned 10.6 billion; they had about a 32 percent share of the market. DHL, 2.8 billion in revenues, about 8.5 percent, so they weren't one of...
